

Congressional Awareness Symposium

Program Overview

Virgil Simons

Founder and President, The Prostate Net

Welcome to the first Prostate Net Congressional Symposium on Prostate Cancer. We are going to be talking about the disease, the elements that are going to be involved in helping to address the negative impact of prostate cancer on our society and patient and research efforts, but more importantly we're going to be talking about the need to have policy engagement in terms of being able to help things change.