

PSA Testing: Making Sense of the Rhetoric/Patient/Doctor Communications

Senator Gale Buchner

At a state level, we were able to pass legislation creating a voluntary income tax check-off where citizens can make a voluntary donation towards research and prevention of prostate, ovarian, and breast cancers. Any breakthrough in any form of cancer helps everybody. Help us spread the word when folks do their state income tax to look for that voluntary check-off.